Area Commission Evaluation Criteria

The Gahanna Area Commission meetings are intended to bolster communication between applicants, City government, and community members regarding matters of growth and development. While the Area Commission are a recommending body, they are asked to evaluate projects by the criteria that is listed below:

- Does the scale and use fit the context of the surrounding neighborhood?
- How could the proposal be improved?
- What are the outcomes of the proposal?
- How does the proposal fit the context in terms of pedestrian friendliness, scale, compatibility with surrounding uses, vehicular circulation, and traffic?
- General comments and suggestions
