Statewide Tornado Safety Drill

A statewide tornado safety drill will be conducted on Wednesday, March 6, 2013, at 9:50 a.m. The warning sirens will sound for three minutes and there will be no noon siren test that day.

At the sound of the sirens, those who are able are requested to go to a safe place for a few minutes and contemplate the actions you would take in the event of a tornado. If you cannot go to a shelter area, review the necessary steps you would take if a tornado warning was issued.
