

Gahanna Story Trail Requests for Artist Proposals

Gahanna Parks & Recreation has collaborated with the Gahanna Branch of the Columbus Metropolitan Library to present the Gahanna Story Trail, an exciting annual installation of a story posted on interpretive signs through the nature trail at Friendship Park.

The 2015 Story Trail is seeking artists to illustrate the story “Following a Feathered Friend” written by:

Juli Lindenmayer – Lincoln High School

Katherine Clifford – Lincoln High School

Emerson Fry – Gahanna Middle School West

Rebekah Nolette – Homeschooled

Carson Wolf – Jefferson Elementary

Kendall Hitler – Highpoint Elementary

Request For Proposals

- Artist to create samples of work to be reviewed by a panel for selection to illustrate the story. Selected artist will be provided a stipend to help cover cost of materials and time.
- All artwork styles and mediums will be considered. Story is a children’s book, artwork to be in this genre.
- Open to any student artist in a Gahanna School district.
- On request story to be provided to interested artists, please email requests to zac.guthrie@gahanna.gov.
- Proposals due by February 27, 5pm to the Gahanna Parks & Recreation Office, 200 S. Hamilton Road, Gahanna, Ohio 43230. Artist to be selected on March 6, once artist is selected they will meet with writers to begin illustration process. Final artwork is to be completed by April 17.
- Artist will be credited with illustrations and introduced during the 2015 Story Trail grand opening, May 22 at 6:30pm.

CITY OF GAHANNA
DEPARTMENT OF PARKS & RECREATION

Interested artists should contact:

Recreation Supervisor Zac Guthrie, 614-342-4268, zac.guthrie@gahanna.gov